

Snow Camp Information

In order to have a great time together at Snow Camp 24, we need to make sure everybody is safe too. Here's the details about our trip:

When is it?

February 7-9, 2025

Who is invited?

All middle schoolers, especially those from Stranger Things, the middle school youth group.

Where is it?

Timberlee Christian Camp in East Troy, Wi.

What is it?

It is a weekend of programming for middle schoolers including meals Friday through Sunday, a Christian band and a guest speaker who will talk about loving and following Jesus.

How much does it cost?

The weekend costs $170 per person. See Larry if you need a discount or if a friend needs help with the costs.

How do we get there?

We will rent a van. Larry and Lisa will drive there, and we will recruit parent drivers as well for drop off Friday and Pick up Sunday. Or, we will take sled dogs or helicopters.

What is there to do there?

There is a craft room, game room, and winter activities weather allowing such as broomball, sledding, X-country skiing, etc. We will also be ready to play board games and card games together when we have free time and want to be warm.

Who is chaperoning this trip?

Larry and Lisa Lloyd will go, and so will Jenna Shea, and Gabe Menning, who have been volunteering with Stranger Things this year. Other parents are also welcome to chaperone if they contact Larry.

Will anyone else be there?

Yes. There will be camp staff and other youth groups.

Where will we stay?

The camp has different bunk rooms and housing. We will be with our own group for the housing.

Will people sleep?

Yes. The leaders will do their best to make sure people go to sleep. Students will be expected to listen and try to get a good nights' rest so they can enjoy the full days.

What do we need to bring?

A Bible, sleeping bag and pillow, warm clothes and shoes (hat, gloves, etc.), a small amount of spending money for snacks, or brings snacks, pajamas, toothbrush etc.,

What do we need NOT to bring?

Don't bring any electronic or computer stuff.

What are the rules?

Have a great attitude. Be friendly and kind to the group and the rest of the campers. Listen and follow directions of the leaders. No practical jokes on anybody: that would ruin their weekend. Have an open heart and mind and be ready to learn and think about the presentations made at the camp about the Christian faith.
